PUBLIC NOTICES

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 25th August 1958

SUBJECT.—Supply of imported raw silk against exports of silk fabrics made during October 1956–December 1956

No. 73-ITC(PN)/58.—During July–December 1956 licensing period, licences for imported raw silk falling under Serial No. 172 of Part IV against exports of manufactured articles consisting entirely of silk (including piece goods containing upto 90 per cent silk) could be issued in terms of the provisions contained in Appendix XXIII to the Red Book for that period.

2. Raw silk was, however, removed from the scope of licensing under the Export Promotion Scheme with effect from January 1957, and exporters who had effected exports of finished goods during October 1956–December 1956 were therefore precluded from obtaining licences for import of raw silk.

3. It has now been decided that the exporters of manufactured articles consisting entirely of silk (including piece goods containing upto 90 per cent. silk) who had effected exports for which payments were received during October 1956–December 1956 will be authorised to get supply of imported raw silk against the said exports subject to the following conditions:—

- (i) Raw silk for half the value of the finished goods exported will be supplied on producing documentary evidence in respect of exports.
- (ii) The parties will be required to effect further exports of manufactured articles consisting entirely of silk (including piece of goods containing upto 90 per cent of silk) to the extent of 15% of the value of the raw silk supplied and will execute bonds in the prescribed form for this purpose.

4. Applications for the supply of raw silk in the manner indicated above should be submitted to the Port Licensing Authorities before the 15th September 1958.
